

SYF 2024 Celebrations Programmes

Programme	Description	Date	Venue
Kaleidoscope	Kaleidoscope presents a diverse array of music genres by instrumental groups, offering a vibrant fusion of musical styles for all music enthusiasts to enjoy.	28 and 29 June	Gardens by the Bay Supertree Grove and Flower Dome 18 Marina Gardens Dr, S018953
Shall We Sing?	Shall We Sing? presents opportunities through choral singing to enable student performers to connect with their audiences through music.
Dance Extravaganza!	Dance Extravaganza! is a dynamic showcase of diverse dance performances, blending traditional and contemporary styles, to captivate audiences with creativity and expression.
The Youth Station Project	Now in its 9th year, The Youth Station Project is a popular platform for aspiring student-songwriters to express their thoughts and feelings, musicality, and creativity through songwriting, culminating with a showcase of original songs through live performances at Youth Station Live! or song recordings featured on the SYF YouTube Channel. Students in The Youth Station Project will also have the opportunity to receive guidance from professional songwriters.	28 June	National Library Building The Pod at Level 16 100 Victoria St, S188064
		5 July	National Library Building Lobby at Level 1 100 Victoria St, S188064

Project 2024	Themed “Sonic Excursions”, Project 2024 presents educational concerts, workshops, and an Escape Room activity designed for primary and lower secondary school students. The half-day event will bring together Enhanced Music Programme, Music Elective Programme, O- and A-Level Music students and teachers from over forty schools to perform in inter-school ensembles. The programme aims to foster connections with local musicians like Inch Chua and Edward Tan, as well as thought leaders, while igniting students’ passion for music and creativity.	5 July	Yong Siew Toh Conservatory of Music 3 Conservatory Dr, S117376
The Young Playwright Presents	Students are invited to create and submit an original drama monologue based on the theme “Heritage Lost and Found”.	From 28 June	SYF YouTube Channel
Photographers and Videographers	Students may apply their skills in digital media, photography and videography by capturing significant moments of the SYF Celebrations and the behind-the-scenes actions. Selected photos and videos will be posted on SYF social media platforms.		SYF Instagram and Facebook