

ABOUT THE SPECIAL AWARDS

All these awards were made possible by private donations from founding Prime Minister Mr Lee Kuan Yew and Prime Minister Lee Hsien Loong. In total, about 2,420 awards have been given out to date.

The Lee Kuan Yew Awards are funded through the interest proceeds from the Lee Kuan Yew Donation account of the Education Fund, which include honorariums from his past speaking engagements and proceeds from his book sales, as well as donations from well-wishers who have contributed specifically towards this cause. The Lee Kuan Yew Awards are special awards given out annually to outstanding students in schools, the ITE, and the polytechnics, in recognition of their achievements in academic and non-academic spheres.

The Lee Hsien Loong Awards are funded from donations made by Prime Minister Lee Hsien Loong since 2008 to set up an endowment fund. The Lee Hsien Loong Awards are special awards to recognise outstanding students in Northlight School and Assumption Pathway School who did well and progressed to ITE, outstanding all-rounders with contribution to community, top bicultural students, as well as schools which provide all-round development for Normal course students.

The Prime Minister's Book Prize (PMBP)

Established in 1974, the Prime Minister's Book Prize, is an annual award for bilingualism given at the Primary, Secondary and Pre-University levels. This year, 38 students received the Prime Minister's Book Prize – 12 from the Primary school category, 16 from the Secondary school category and 10 from the Pre-University category.

The Lee Hsien Loong Award for Outstanding Bicultural Students (LHL-OBS)

The LHL-OBS Award was set up in 2009 to recognise top students in the Bicultural Studies Programme (Chinese) (BSP(C)) and the top student in the Regional Studies Programme (RSP). The award underpins the strategic importance of developing a core group of students conversant in Chinese or Malay, and are able to engage our Asian neighbours as well as relate to the west. This year, three students from the BSP(C) and one student from the RSP received the LHL-OBS. This is the third year in which the award is presented to the most outstanding RSP student.

The Lee Kuan Yew Award for Mathematics and Science (LKY- M & S)

The LKY- M & S Award was presented for the first time in 1992. It is given under 3 categories – Secondary, Pre-University and Polytechnic. A total of 38 students received the award this year – 13 from the Secondary school category, 10 from the Pre-University category and 15 from the Polytechnic category.

The Lee Kuan Yew Award for Outstanding Normal Course Students (LKY-ONC Award)

The LKY-ONC Award was presented for the first time in 2004. This year, five awards were presented to top Normal (Academic) course students and four awards to the top Normal (Technical) students, based on their GCE 'O' level and 'N' level examination results respectively.

The Lee Kuan Yew Scholarship to Encourage Upgrading (LKY-STEP Award)

The LKY-STEP Award was presented for the first time in 2001. This award was made possible by founding Prime Minister Mr Lee Kuan Yew who donated the proceeds from the sales of autographed editions of Volume Two of his memoirs to the Ministry of Education in October 2000. The scholarship is to encourage upgrading and life-long learning. The award is presented to outstanding Institute of Technical Education (ITE) and polytechnic graduates who have performed well academically and attained good co-curricular activity records. This year, 15 LKY-STEP awards were presented to ITE graduates pursuing full-time studies at the polytechnics, and 10 LKY-STEP awards were presented to polytechnic graduates pursuing full-time undergraduate studies at the local universities.

The Sultan Haji Omar Ali Saifuddien Book Prize (SHOAS Book Prize)

The SHOAS Book Prize was made possible by founding Prime Minister Mr Lee Kuan Yew, who donated the honorarium he had received from the Sultan Haji Hassanal Bolkiah Foundation in February 2009. This award was presented for the first time in 2009 and aims to recognise the Lee Kuan Yew Scholarship to Encourage Upgrading recipients who have achieved the most outstanding academic results at ITE. This year, 6 students received the award.

The Lee Kuan Yew Award for All-Round Excellence (LKY-ARE)

The LKY-ARE Award is a national level award for achievement in education that was presented since 2005. It recognises well-rounded students who have excelled in both academic and non-academic domains, and who exemplify positive character development, strong leadership qualities and commitment to service to the community. This year, eight students were presented the Award.

The Lee Hsien Loong Award for Outstanding All-Round Achievement (LHL-OAA)

The LHL-OAA Award is funded by an endowment donated by Prime Minister Lee Hsien Loong in 2009. The award is to recognise the outstanding academic and non-academic achievements of post-secondary students, particularly those who have made outstanding contributions to the community and demonstrated the spirit of innovation and enterprise. There are four awards to be given out each year, with 1 student from each of the following four groups – ITE, Polytechnics, Junior Colleges / Millennia Institute and Autonomous Universities.

The Lee Hsien Loong Award for Special Achievement (LHL-ASA)

The LHL-ASA Award is funded by an endowment donated by Prime Minister Lee Hsien Loong. The LHL-ASA was presented for the first time in 2009, and is given to one outstanding student each from NorthLight School and Assumption Pathway School, who has done well and progressed to ITE. The award recognises students who have exemplified positive character development and a positive attitude towards learning and self-improvement. The recipients must have also shown strong leadership qualities and commitment to serve the community.