

Terms of Reference for UPLIFT

1. To take stock and review existing measures to support high-needs children and their families, with particular attention to children of younger ages
2. To recommend strategies for strengthening early and upstream interventions for different profiles of students and their families
3. To develop an integrated approach to coordinate and leverage efforts across stakeholders in identifying and supporting these children, including the facilitation of collaborative data-sharing with agencies and partners; and
4. To oversee implementation and evaluation of taskforce strategies and initiatives, with a view towards effective long-term sustainability of intervention efforts