

CENTRE FOR CCE IN NIE

The Centre for CCE in NIE will serve to:

- i. Provide leadership for coherence and intentionality of CCE-related courses;
- ii. Conduct CCE-related educational research to inform policy and practice and be a nexus for research, practice and theory in CCE, with a greater emphasis on practice and pedagogy in the Singapore context;
- iii. Collaborate with schools to explore, develop and promote new and innovative ways to enhance learning in CCE;
- iv. Provide the framework for the curriculum, pedagogy and assessment for the undergraduate, graduate and in-service PD courses for teacher education and teacher-development, in alignment with SFEd; and
- v. Provide thought leadership and expand expertise in CCE by forming learning communities and bring together experts as consultants and collaborators in research and PD, both locally and internationally.
