

12 December 2022

MINISTRY OF EDUCATION NOTIFICATION (GA/30/22)
(General Information)

POSTGRADUATE SCHOLARSHIPS / AWARDS
FOR STUDIES IN 2024
(EDUCATION OFFICERS)

Applications to be submitted by 13 January 2023

1. The 2023 MOE Postgraduate Scholarship/Award (PGS/PGA) Exercise will open for applications from 12 December 2022 to 13 January 2023, for Education Officers (EOs) and trained teachers outside of the MOE system (e.g. Direct Staff of Independent/Aided Schools and formerly trained EOs). These scholarships and awards are tenable for overseas/local postgraduate studies commencing in 2024, by coursework or research in education-related areas. Officers can pursue the studies in subject-specific areas, areas of specialisation or general curriculum and teaching.

ELIGIBILITY

2. The MOE PGS/PGA sponsors professional development in postgraduate studies for outstanding EOs in the 3 career tracks – Leadership, Senior Specialist and Teaching, and to build professional expertise in areas of need.

3. All applicants for the PGS/PGA must meet the following criteria:

- a. Be a Singapore Citizen or a Permanent Resident (PR) with intention to take up a Singapore Citizenship¹;
- b. Have an undergraduate degree;
- c. Have at least 5 years of trained working experience in the education field as at 31 Dec 2023;
- d. Have demonstrated good conduct;
- e. Have at least one 'B' endorsed performance grade within the last 3 years, and demonstrated potential to take on higher responsibilities and/or leadership positions; and
- f. Have fulfilled the minimum service requirement for in-service milestone programmes or other professional development activities attended², if any, before the commencement of their studies.

¹ PRs who are awarded a PGS or PGA are required to have obtained their Singapore Citizenship before embarking on their studies.

² Officers who have recently attended in-service milestone programmes (i.e. Senior Teacher's Programme, Advanced Senior Teacher's Programme, Teacher-Leaders Programme, Management and Leadership in Schools, Diploma in School Counselling, Leaders in Education Programme and Leaders for Leaders Programme) should contribute in their schools/divisions for at least 2 years before embarking on their next professional development activity. Similarly, officers who have taken up professional development activities (refer to HR Online for list of professional activities) should contribute for at least 3 years.

Note: Officers who fulfil the above conditions will be further shortlisted for an interview.

4. Officers keen on the Senior Specialist Track (SST) are strongly encouraged to apply for a posting to a Specialist Division in HQ first, to gain a better understanding of the work scope, requirements as well as their suitability for the track. If you are already appointed on the SST or have been found suitable for appointment on the SST, and would like to pursue a relevant Master’s programme for your development, you are encouraged to discuss your plans with your supervisor.

5. Senior Specialists may apply to pursue PhD studies in relevant specialised areas. Master Teachers (MTT)/ Principal Master Teachers (PMTT) may also apply to pursue a Doctorate in Education (EdD) in subject-specific areas or curriculum and teaching, to strengthen their capacity to drive pedagogical excellence.

CHOICE OF POSTGRADUATE COURSE AND UNIVERSITY

7. All applicants should discuss with their Principals/Branch Heads on suitable areas and the timing of studies before putting in an application. Applicants are also expected to conduct their own checks with the universities on the postgraduate courses they wish to pursue before submitting their applications (e.g. course application window, universities/ institutions, course standing and reputation⁴, eligibility criteria, availability of courses/ intake in intended year of study, whether it is offered on a part-time or full-time basis and the availability of suitable faculty members/research supervisors in the intended area of studies/research for doctorate studies).

8. Applicants are encouraged to pursue a Master's in professional areas to further strengthen their professional expertise and better serve in their primary role as educators before considering postgraduate programmes in public administration, policy or leadership areas. Applicants who intend to pursue postgraduate studies in educational policy, administration and leadership are encouraged to indicate at least one course that is in general curriculum and teaching or subject-specific areas in their application.

9. Applicants are also encouraged to read some modules in Assessment as part of their postgraduate studies to strengthen their overall professional knowledge in classroom teaching, assessment and curriculum leadership, and/or in emerging areas such as data literacy and educational technology.

10. Applicants are required to indicate at least one local course. If there are no local courses in the area of interest and/ or applicants do not wish to consider local courses in other areas, please indicate so and specify the reasons in the application form. Whether a local or overseas award is given depends on the interview panel's assessment.

11. Officers applying for PhD/EdD studies are required to upload a proposal on their intended area of study/research and its relevance to MOE as part of their application. Shortlisted applicants should also be prepared to share their proposal with the interview panel.

APPLICATION PROCESS

Application Mode & Deadline

12. Serving EOs should apply for the PGS/PGA online via the HR and Payroll (HRP) portal by 13 January 2023 (Friday). Late or incomplete applications will strictly not be considered. For a step-by-step guide on how to submit your application, please refer to the Quick Reference Guides (QRGs) by clicking on the "Support Materials" tile in the HRP portal. The QRGs are located under the folder "Sponsorship" > "QRG" > "ESS-Sponsorship-My Sponsorship.pdf".

13. Applicants outside of the MOE system without access to the HRP portal can apply for the PGS/PGA via the application form in Annex A. The form can also be downloaded from the highlights section of the MOE website (<http://www.moe.gov.sg>). All applications must be submitted in softcopy by 13 January 2023 (Friday) to MOE_TMU@moe.gov.sg.

⁴ Officers can refer to internationally established university rankings such as the QS World University Rankings or US News Education Graduate Schools. However, applicants are not restricted to the universities found on these ranking lists and may consider others as well.

Selection & Award Process

14. Applications of shortlisted applicants will be routed to their Principals/Branch Heads for endorsement via the HRP portal⁵. Thus, applicants should indicate their Principal/Branch Head as the Reporting Officer when submitting their application in the HRP portal. Applicants will be notified of the shortlisting outcome in March 2023 and should keep their Principals/Branch Head updated on the status of their application.

15. Shortlisted applicants must attend a selection interview in March/April 2023. An interview panel of members from the MOE senior management team will decide on the award of the PGS/ PGA, if at all. All shortlisted applicants will be notified of the outcome of their interview by June 2023. Awardees need to apply for university admission on their own thereafter.

16. Shortlisted applicants outside of the MOE system who are found suitable by the interview panel will be awarded a conditional offer, which requires awardees to be successfully re-appointed to MOE and undergo a one-year posting to MOE schools/HQ from January 2024. The posting will provide them with exposure to the Education Service and the confirmation of the PGS/PGA award is subject to their good performance during their posting.

DEPLOYMENT OF MOE PGS AND PGA AWARDEES

PGS Awardees

17. PGS awardees currently teaching in schools must serve a short stint in MOE HQ from January 2024 before their studies commence. This stint will be arranged by HR and aims to expose officers to HQ work and recent policy developments in the Education Service, which can inform awardees' choice of modules during their postgraduate studies. School Leaders and officers who have served a recent HQ stint or are commencing their studies in January/ February 2024 are exempted. Lead Teachers and Senior Teachers are also exempted from the HQ stint and will remain in schools until they leave for their studies to continue to hone their pedagogical skills and build up their professional portfolio for progression along the Teaching Track.

18. Deployment of PGS awardees after they complete their postgraduate studies is centrally managed by HR and will take into consideration organisational needs, the officer's career track and area of postgraduate study. Hence, PGS awardees need not apply for their return postings. Generally, officers who have not served a full HQ stint of at least 2 years will be posted to a MOE HQ Division where they can apply and contribute in areas of work that they have learnt from their postgraduate studies. Officers who have served a recent full HQ stint and are on the Leadership Track or Teaching Track will be considered for deployment back to schools. Master Teachers, Principal Master Teachers, and officers on the Senior Specialist Track will be deployed back to their respective HQ Divisions or Academies. Master Teachers may also be posted to schools.

⁵ Seconded officers whose Branch Heads/Principals are not on the HRP portal are required to seek approval offline first and upload the email as a supporting document when submitting their PGS/PGA application via the HRP portal.

PGA Awardees

19. PGA awardees from schools are not required to serve a pre-course HQ stint prior to their studies and will remain in their current postings until they leave for their studies. Except for Senior Specialists and Principal Master Teachers sited in HQ, PGA awardees will generally be deployed back to schools after their studies. Deployment of PGA awardees upon completion of postgraduate studies will be centrally managed by HR. Hence, PGA awardees need not apply for their return postings.
