SEC G3 HIGHER MUSIC EXAMINATION

All non-IP MEP students will take the Singapore-Cambridge Secondary Education Certificate (SEC)* G3 Higher Music Examination.

IP MEP students may take the SEC G3 Higher Music Examination or a school-based Music examination. Respective IP schools will advise their MEP students accordingly.

From the 2027 graduating cohort, SEC will replace the General Certificate of Education for O and N levels.*

SEC G3 MUSIC EXAMINATION

OR

SEC G3 HIGHER MUSIC EXAMINATION

Students will sit for the SEC G3 Music Examination or be recommended by their teachers to take the Higher Music Examination. This is dependent on students' aptitude, interest and performance at the end of the Secondary 3 school-based examinations.

SEC G3 MUSIC EXAMINATION

SEC G3 HIGHER MUSIC EXAMINATION

Students will sit for the SEC G3 Music Examination or be recommended by their teachers to take the Higher Music Examination. This is dependent on students' aptitude, interest and performance at the end of the Secondary 3 school-based examinations.

IP students offering G3 Music who are not in the MEP will not take the SEC G3 Music or Higher Music Examination.

Students who offer Higher Music will be able to use their Higher Music grade as an R1/R3 (in lieu of their Humanities grade) or R4 in the calculation of L1R4 for Junior Colleges or Millennia Institute.

For Polytechnics, Higher Music and Music are considered R2 in the calculation of EL1R2B2-A and EL1R2B2-B.
