

Instructions for Declaration of Alternative Child-care Arrangement

1. Parents who wish to do a declaration of alternative child-care arrangement are required to do the following:
 - Print and complete the declaration form for you or your spouse
 - Print and complete the declaration form for the caregiver

2. Only one parent is required to be present at MOE Customer Service Centre to submit the declaration forms. The caregiver does not need to be present. You will need to bring the following original supporting documents:
 - Completed and signed declaration form for you or your spouse
 - Completed and signed declaration form for the caregiver
 - Both parents' NRICs
 - Caregiver's NRIC
 - Birth certificate of the child to be registered for Primary 1
 - Proof of the relationship between you and your child's caregiver:
 - Birth certificate
 - Marriage certificate (where applicable)
 - Photocopies of passport, NRIC, overseas employment letter if you or your spouse is currently overseas

Important

- Forms must be completed accurately based on the declarant's NRIC.
- You or your spouse and the caregiver must sign on the completed forms.
- If there is any correction made on the form, the declarant must countersign against the correction. Alternatively, please complete a new form.
