

01 | THE INTERVIEW

You may expect to spend up to 2 hours at MOE on the day of interview. You will be required to complete the following:

a. Written Task

Write a response to a scenario which will be given when you arrive. You will be required to write in English if you have been shortlisted for an English-medium subject. If you have been shortlisted for teaching Chinese Language, Malay Language or Tamil Language, please use the appropriate language. Although there is no limit on the number of words, the essay should not exceed a page. You have 20 minutes to complete this task. You should refrain from referring to additional resources (e.g. dictionary, Google, friends) or writing in point form when completing this task.

b. Presentation Task

Before the start of the interview proper, you will be asked to give a 5-minute lesson presentation on your first teaching subject, pitched at the level you have been shortlisted for. Do prepare for the presentation beforehand. The interview panel will play the part of students. A whiteboard and markers are available for your use; you may also prepare your own simple teaching aids if you wish to do so. Do note that IT support (e.g. laptop, projector) will not be provided.

You are to present in English if you have been shortlisted for an English-medium subject, and in the appropriate Mother Tongue Language if you have been shortlisted to teach in the Chinese, Malay or Tamil-medium. If you have been shortlisted to teach English Language (Pri), you may choose to present on either the first or second teaching subject.

Please refer to the subject syllabuses at <http://www.moe.gov.sg/education/syllabuses/> for possible topics to present on.

c. Meet the panel

The panel typically comprises senior educators and a HR representative.

02 | INTERVIEW CHECKLIST

This checklist will assist in your preparation for the interview. Please do the following:

1. Print and complete this checklist (pages 2 and 3) before coming to the interview.
2. Bring both the originals and photocopies of the documents listed in the checklist.
3. Arrange your documents (originals and photocopies) in the order listed in the checklist.

Your documents will be checked at the interview. Please note that the outcome of your application may be delayed if you fail to produce any of the relevant documents at the interview.

03 | AFTER THE INTERVIEW

- a. You will be updated of your application status 4-5 weeks after the interview. If you are assessed as suitable for teaching at the interview and meet all the eligibility requirements (e.g. passed the relevant proficiency tests as required by the Ministry), your application will be considered in competition with the other candidates shortlisted for employment.
- b. If you are found suitable for employment as an untrained contract teacher, you will not be allowed to change the teaching subject(s) and level you have been assigned, as subject assignment takes into consideration your qualifications as well as organisational requirements.
- c. If you are selected for employment as an untrained contract teacher and you accept the offer, you will be deployed to a school for the untrained teaching stint. In general, untrained teaching stints range from 4 months to a year. You will be assessed on your suitability for teaching by the school throughout the stint. Your admission into NIE is subject to your good performance, the school's assessment of your suitability for teaching as well as course availability in NIE at that point in time.
- d. For information on your salary and benefits, please refer to www.moe.gov.sg/careers/teach/salary-benefits.
- e. For in-service Allied Educators (AED)
AED selected for conversion to the Education Service are posted to a different school for the untrained teaching stint.
