Author/ Editor	Book Title	Story Brief
Farihan Bahron	JLN404	‘JLN404’ follows Sofia and Iskandar as they race to defend Singapore’s memories from the Agents of Historical Erasure. Armed with an old compass and a digital code, they must uncover a lost heritage before the city’s identity disappears forever.
Djohan Abdul Rahman	Jangan Ikut Hantu (Don’t Follow the Ghost)	‘Jangan Ikut Hantu’ brings together established local Malay writers spanning multiple generations – from teenagers to those in their 70s – to document the games that shaped their childhoods. This collection of short stories captures play culture across different eras, evoking nostalgia while introducing the younger generation to games of the past.
Noridah Kamari	Tanah Air (Homeland)	‘Tanah Air’ brings together 20 speculative short stories exploring the relationship between modern humans and Singapore’s past. These stories reimagine the nation’s heritage, historical landmarks and monuments, as well as cultural icons through the lens of fantasy, time travel and magical realism.
