

Expanding Opportunities for Mid-Career Workers

“Our higher education institutions and adult training system must provide re-tooling opportunities for Singaporeans as they journey through different jobs over their career lifetime.”

Ms Gan Siow Huang

Minister of State for Education

MOE FY2022 Committee of Supply Debate Response, 7 March 2022

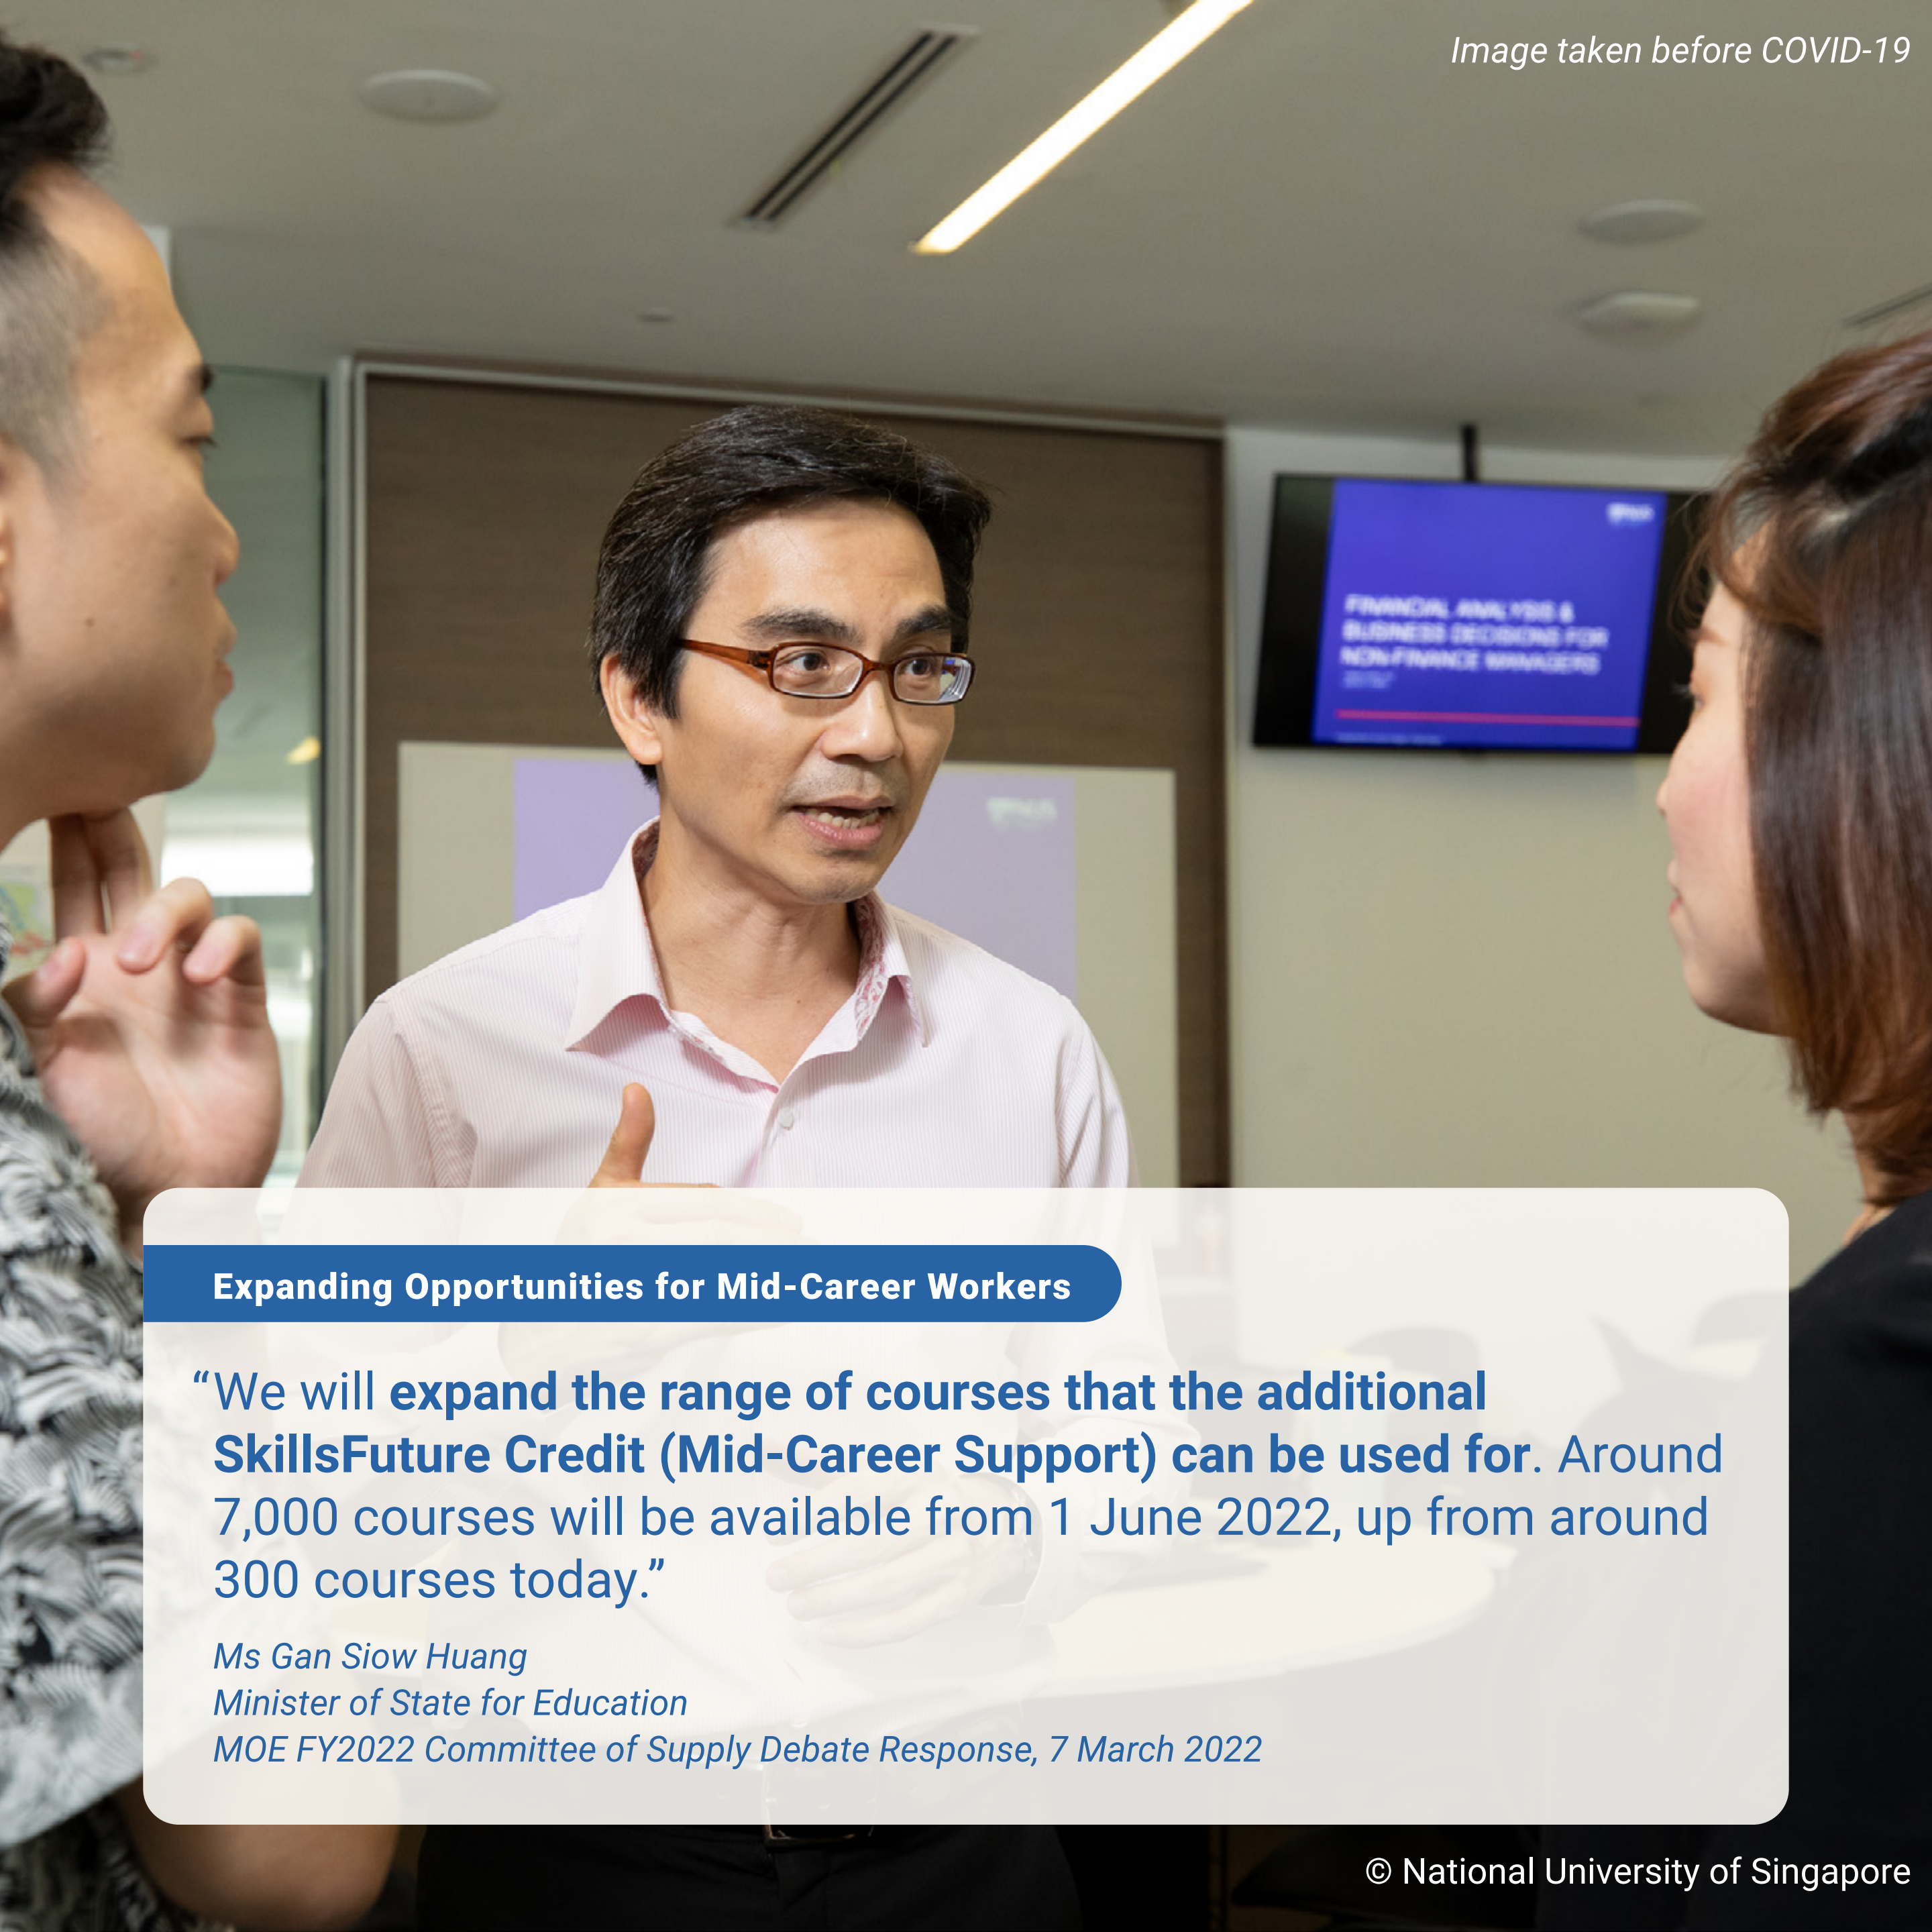

Expanding Opportunities for Mid-Career Workers

“We will build on our experience with SGUnited Skills and SGUnited Mid-Career Pathways – Company Training and merge these two programmes into a new SkillsFuture Transition Programme (SCTP) from April 2022. The SCTP will be our steady-state train-and-place programme for mid-career individuals.”

Ms Gan Siow Huang

Minister of State for Education

MOE FY2022 Committee of Supply Debate Response, 7 March 2022

Expanding Opportunities for Mid-Career Workers

“We will expand the range of courses that the additional SkillsFuture Credit (Mid-Career Support) can be used for. Around 7,000 courses will be available from 1 June 2022, up from around 300 courses today.”

Ms Gan Siow Huang

Minister of State for Education

MOE FY2022 Committee of Supply Debate Response, 7 March 2022

Enterprises and Employers as Drivers of Workforce Transformation

“We encourage enterprises to play the role of SkillsFuture Queen Bees to mobilise other companies within their networks to engage in training and upskilling. This will raise the capabilities of the sector as a whole and enhance their competitive advantage.”

Ms Gan Siow Huang

Minister of State for Education

MOE FY2022 Committee of Supply Debate Response, 7 March 2022

Fostering Collaborations with Tripartite Partners and Industry Intermediaries

“SSG can complement the Company Training Committees process by helping these companies build their skills development capabilities.”

Ms Gan Siow Huang

Minister of State for Education

MOE FY2022 Committee of Supply Debate Response, 7 March 2022

Fostering Collaborations with Tripartite Partners and Industry Intermediaries

“SSG plans to partner Trade Associations and Chambers (TACs) as “Skills Development Partners”. For a start, SSG will work with IMDA to partner the Singapore Computer Society and SGTech in the ICT sector. SSG is also exploring similar partnerships with other TACs, to reach out to more sectors.”

Ms Gan Siow Huang

Minister of State for Education

MOE FY2022 Committee of Supply Debate Response, 7 March 2022